Registration Authority

Registration Authority for ISO 8802
The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Inc., has been designated by the ISO Council to act as the Registration Authority for the implementation of International Standards ISO 8802.

IEEE offers Registration Authority programs or registries which maintain lists of unique identifiers under standards and issue unique identifiers to those wishing to register them. The IEEE Registration Authority assigns unambiguous names to objects in a way which makes the assignment available to interested parties. The IEEE Registration Authority operates under the direction of the IEEE-SA Board of Governors.

- Registration Authority Committee (RAC): Oversight committee that assists standard developing organizations to establish unambiguous, sustainable registration authorities.
- Tutorials: Informative documents to assist with learning more about IEEE Standard Association Registries.
- FAQs: The commonly most asked questions about our registries and how they are used.

Please take a moment to verify that the information contained in the company addressed area (above) is correct. If it is not entirely correct, please notify the IEEE Registration Authority (IEEE RA) immediately.

Following is the MAC Address Block Medium (MA-M) assignment that you have requested from the IEEE. Your MA-M assignment includes blocks of 48-bit Extended Unique Identifier (EUI-48) and 64-bit Extended Unique Identifier (EUI-64). EUI-48 and EUI-64 identifiers may be used as IEEE 802-defined MAC addresses of EUI length respectively.

The base value of your MA-M assignment may also be used to generate unique multicast addresses (per IEEE Std 802). This 28-bit identifier is unique to the assignee, but there is no definition of an OUI-28 identifier. The assignee of the MA-M cannot make any assumptions about the first 24 bits of the assigned 28 bits, and may not use those 24 bits as an OUI because that OUI is assigned to the IEEE Registration Authority for use in MA-M Assignments.

The user tutorials on our web site describe how the MA-S assignment can be used in conjunction with a number of standards and specifications. This assignment applies to all of these. The tutorials can be found on the web at: <http://standards.ieee.org/develop/regauth/tut/index.html> (<http://standards.ieee.org/develop/regauth/tut/index.html>)

Your MA-M assignment is:

28-bit Base Value AA-BB-CC-0	EUI-48 Address Block 0-00-00 through F-FF-FF
---------------------------------	---

Issue date is: Month-Day, Year
Invoice Number: RA0000000000

It should be stressed that the IEEE Registration Authority has made every effort to ensure that the same numbers are not assigned to any other entity but does not guarantee that duplicate assignments have
